issues), keeping in mind the impressionable paperwork that would be presented is just glitter and slight of hand compared to the actual practices being done. An on going investigation into corrupt affairs and the Federal Police dont give a damn, why? dont you think this mess goes way deeper than that and what else is happening that no one knows about? I know I'm a criminal and have no rights (so we are told) but at least I was put before a judge. Please do something about this mess of a Government and the stench of Brahmanism.
